The eternity of God and women

Lisa Hughes commenting in her book, God's Priorities for Today's Woman:

"...frequently people dismiss the Bible's commands as being old-fashioned and irrelevant for today. And many women would like to believe God would change His mind if He really knew and understood our modern culture and their personal situations. Yet God truly does know the issues we face. He didn't make any mistakes giving us His Word exactly as we have it in our Bibles today. God knew precisely what He wanted to communicate for all time, for our time, and it is recorded in Titus 2:3-5."

Love your husband

Subject yourself to your husband

Remember: We are equal as humans Genesis 1:27
 We are equal as believers Galatians 3:28
 We have different roles Genesis 1:18, etc.

We must turn from sinful desires Genesis 3:16 toward Colossians 3:18

What about the wife married to an unbeliever?

I Peter 2:21-23 Christ's example of obedience
I Peter 3:1-6 Specific instruction to these wives

Our children

As our children grow up and as they make plans for their adult future, are we including God's high calling for them as girls/women and boys/men in the conversation?

How can we as church family also support this training as we have relationships with the children growing up in our church?

Here is a wonderful opportunity for us to share with each other where we have experience and learn from others as we endeavor to raise our children according to God's intention!

Conclusion

Psalms 117 "Praise Yahweh, all nations; Laud Him, all peoples! For His lovingkindness prevails over us, and the truth of Yahweh is everlasting. Praise Yah!"
