Eyes to Heaven: The Function of Faith
Passage: John 17:6–19

Michael Otazu

1. Read John 17:11 and Ephesians 4:1–6. What are some practical implications of God's design for the local church to be relationally unified? How can you as an individual contribute to this goal of unity in the body? Conversely, what sorts of behaviors threaten our unity?

 2. Read John 17:11–12 and 1 Peter 1:3–5 and consult Pastor Aaron's sermon from Sunday evening. Consider the doctrine of eternal security. How does the sureness of salvation for those who truly believe encourage you personally?

 3. Read John 17:14–19 and Psalms 119:158–160. In what ways have you seen our relativistic culture's erosion of the objectivity of truth affected your own life or family? To what biblical principles ought we hold fast as the whims of our world reject objective truth and chase the illusion of subjectivism? What are some other Bible passages that can guide your thinking on this issue?
