The Gospel of Luke: The Storm-Stillling Savior
Passage: Luke 8:22–25

Jesse Randolph

1. Read Luke 8:22–23. How does this text portray the humanity of Christ? What are some other passages of Scripture which testify to Jesus' humanity? Why is affirming Jesus' humanity an essential component of Christian faith and doctrine? Consult Hebrews 4:15; Hebrews 9:22; Hebrews 10:4; 1 John 4:2–3.

2. Read Luke 8:24. How does this passage testify to the deity of Christ? Consult Psalm 65:5–8; 89:8–9; 107:23–29. Where else in Scripture is Christ affirmed as not only truly man, but truly God? Why does this matter?

3. Read Luke 8:25. How would you answer the two questions presented in this verse? First, in times of trial, where does your faith rest? And second, what are your thoughts of Jesus, the storm-stilling Savior? Use Scripture to support your answers to both questions.
