The Gospel of Luke: On Mission

Jesse Randolph

Passage: Luke 10:1–24

1. Read Luke 10:2. Knowing that the fields are "white for harvest" (John 4:35), are you praying that the Lord would raise up more laborers to advance His gospel? As you wait on the Lord to answer your prayers, are you personally laboring in the proclamation of the gospel? Consult Romans 1:16; 1 Corinthians 9:16b; Ephesians 6:13–15.

2. Read Luke 10:3. What are some of the ways we might face opposition today to the message we've been charged to proclaim? Consult Philippians 3:18–19; Jude 17–19. How ought we, as "lambs," respond to the attacks of the "wolves"? Consult 1 Peter 3:13–15; Jude 20–21.

3. Read Luke 10:16. How do Jesus' words both raise the stakes in our personal evangelism, while also taking the personal pressure off of us in our evangelism? Consult Acts 4:12; 1 Timothy 2:5; John 6:44; Acts 13:48.

4. Read Luke 10:23–24. If, as Jesus said, the "seventy" were blessed to see the things "that many prophets and kings wished to see," in what ways are you blessed as one who is living in the church age today? Consult Hebrews 1:1–2a; 1 Peter 1:10–12; 2 Peter 1:19.
