The Gospel of Luke: The Snare of Self-Righteousness — Jesse Randolph

Passage: Luke 10:25–37

1. Read Luke 10:25–29. In what ways can mere religiosity lead to one's efforts to self-justify? What are some ways—particularly before coming to Christ—you've sought to justify yourself before God? What does the Bible teach about our efforts to self-justify? Consult Romans 3:20; Galatians 2:16.

2. Read Luke 10:30–35. In context, what was the point of Jesus' account of the Good Samaritan? What principles can we extract from the Samaritan's example, as we strive to live lives of "faith working through love" (Galatians 5:6)? Consult John 13:34–35; 1 Peter 2:17; 1 John 4:11.

3. Read Luke 10:36–37. Who in your life could you say you've loved in a truly unqualified, unlimited way? Who in your life could you say you've loved "as yourself" (Matthew 22:39)? Write out a short prayer of thanks "for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus" (1 Corinthians 1:4).
